Without a doubt . . .

The time has come to challenge our lives

with reality.

No longer can we rely on the security of familiarity.

The time for recess,

the time for story-telling,

the time for show and tell

Helen Mixter School
West Bridgewater, Massachusetts
Kindergarten
1974 1975

have all slipped by us

remaining only as memories.

We have used our experiences to help us grow individually.

This is evident as we try to grasp goals within our own lives.

Through the years the bonds of friendship have strengthened perspectives have grown and dreams

have changed.

DEDICATION

"Without a doubt we appreciate all that you've said and done, although at the time, we thought that your ways were no fun.

When we came in from breakfast with donuts in hand, we tried to convince you that our tardiness wasn't planned.

When we threw a cookie at the table next door, we realized our conduct would be tolerated no more.

Carlton J. O'Connor, Principal

As we sat in your office awaiting our doom, we prayed that we wouldn't be sent to the "rubber-room."

Looking back now it all seems so clear, your intentions were kind, just, and sincere.

We hope to leave the school mature and wise, and it is with reluctance that we say goodbye's."

Groovy Guy Renaissance Man of the Eighties

The class of 1987 characterizes Mr. White as a Renaissance man because he has played many roles in our lives. Besides acting as our class advisor, and assigning those "fun" term papers, Mr. White has been involved with countless other activities concerning the class of '87. Through thick and thin he has always been there as a teacher and friend. The class of 1987 wants him to know that we appreciate the time and effort he has contributed to us.

High School Helpfuls

Carlton J. O'Connor

Dear Administration,

Your guidance through the years has been valuable in our experiences at West Boylston High School. As we take a step away, we'll always look back fondly, remembering the good times. We, the class of 1987, would like to thank you for sharing a part of yourself with us in order to ensure our growth as individuals.

Sincerely,
The Class of

But we don't know where we've been
And we know what we're knowin.'

I also want to thank my teachers for the extra work they did to help me get caught up. PEOPLE

The year, 86-87, has been filled with people and places that have influenced our lives. Looking at the present and toward the future, these contributions may have changed our attitudes, values, or opinions.

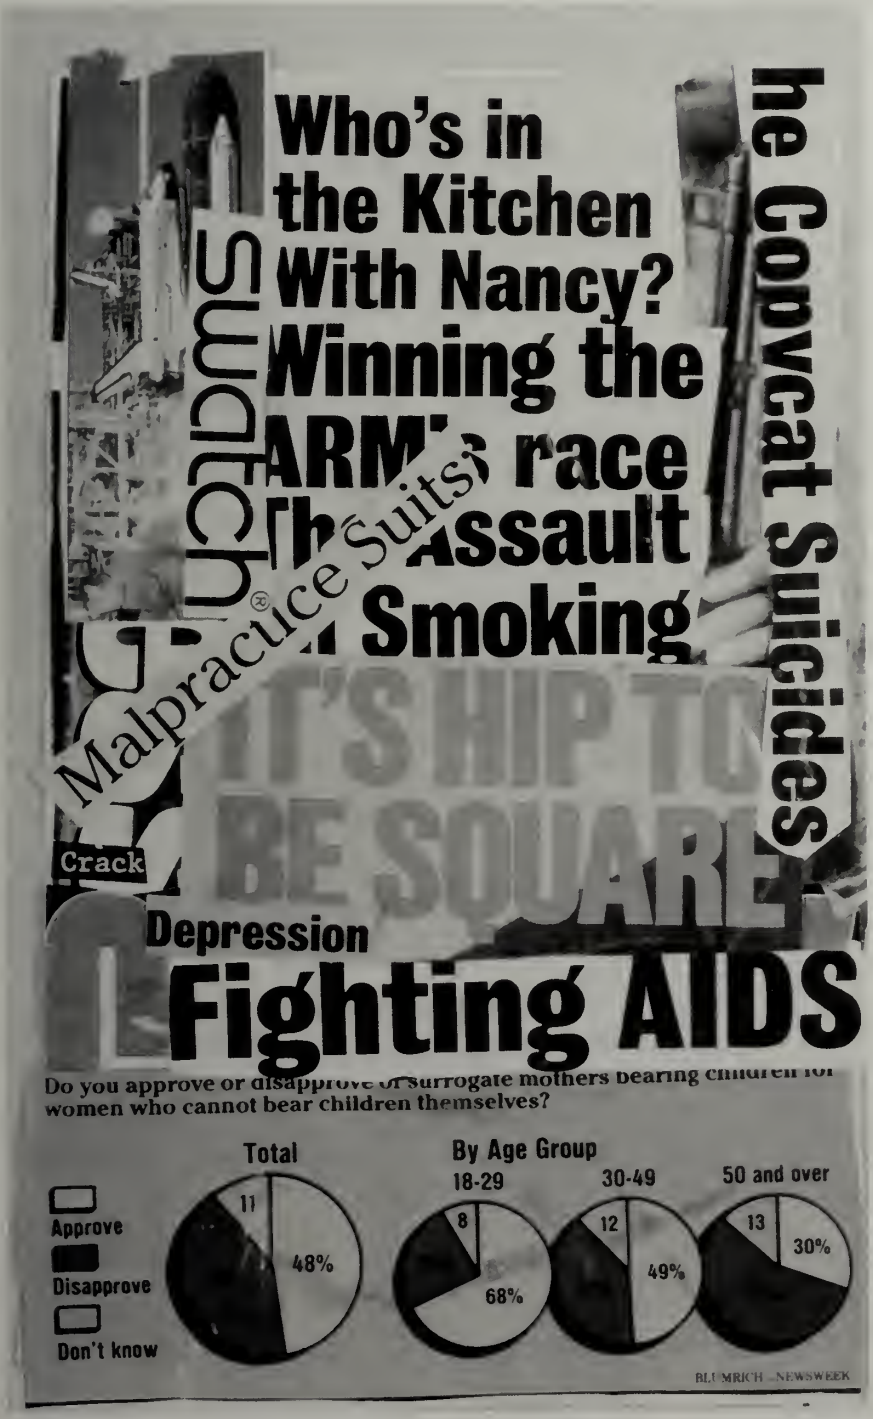
Politically, the Iran-Contra Deal has forced many of us to question the capability of President Reagan and his "lack of memory." Michael Dukais, our governor, is running for president. How will this effect our future? The alleged report of Hart's extramarital affair, discovered by the press, caused Hart to drop out of the presidential race. Did the press have the right to invade/publicize Hart's private life.

Speaking about celebrities in the press, Dave and Maddie have been "Moonlighting" TV with their romance. So long to Shelley Long who left "Cheers" for the movies. Dr. Ruth Westheimer created waves hosting her show "Sexually Speaking". Prince Andrew finally met his fairy princess, Fergie. Michael J. Fox has continued to be popular in his role on "Family Ties." Max Headroom moves from commercials to prime time TV with his new show. Rock Hudson/Liberace died of AIDS. Platoon is released after much persuasion by O. Stone.

S. Africa (apartheid), Iran (arms) and Nicaragua (contras), continue to play parts in our lives as our leaders try to discover a way to achieve peace.

PLACES

THINGS



Huey Lewis' song "Hip to Be Square" created a new wave of attitudes. We felt insecure, yet safe, wondering what was the cool thing to do. Copycat suicide also caught fire scaring students and adults alike.

Crack became an issue when Len Bias died of an overdose of cocaine. Officials started to ban smoking in public places. A requirement to wear seatbelts in MA was overruled. The limits of human rights are being currently examined by violated protesters.

AIDS (Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome) will most likely change our outlook on sex as we face this deadly virus that has no cure.

Surrogate motherhood emerged with the custody battle for Baby M. Doctors are being overwhelmed with malpractice suits. How will this effect the future of health care? Pondering about the things and issues today, gives us the opportunity to foresee tomorrow.

ISSUES

WORK HARD . . .

Patty Dugan and Angie Bailey displays the new fashions at Audrey's

Susan, Lisa, Jill, and Amy know the value of their hard work.

Molly, Debbie, Marianne, Heidi, Tim, and Mary show their Friendly smiles.

Without a doubt, the senior class are hard workers! These dedicated professionals use their extra time working from restaurants to nursing homes. School at WBHS takes up more than enough time, but this overworked underpaid class still keeps it all together.

Scott, Beeza, and Mark keep each other company at Shell.

Mark does a top job at The Fair.

Pete F. discovers the world of cosmetics.

Without a doubt, the senior class definitely plays hard! With our own individual tastes, we have plenty of ways to keep ourselves busy and amused. Seniors may be found on a normal Friday night partying, dancing, bowling, cruising, or resting for the weekend.

Bill O. strums up a melody.

No one else can limbo like Matt B.

Amy, do you swing those hips all the time?

Evil Kenevil? NO! It's Dan G.

. . . PLAY HARD

DOUBT:

Doubt is synonymous with questioning and uncertainty. These are two of the emotions that the class of 1987 has tried to overcome throughout our high school years. Through our participation in sports, clubs, and activities, we strove to attain our individuality. Now as we embark on our future, these emotions will emerge again; however, we will face them courageously . . . without a doubt.

YEAR FOR SPORTS

first row: Coleen Coleman, K. Braymer, W. Givan, S. Chenard, W. O'Connell, M. Larose, Coach Bouvier, second row: L. Casey, L. Josephson, K. Kavanagh.

Members of the Cross Country teams illustrate their characters with the adjectives "Loud, competitive,and troublesome". The seniors dominated the course as Kristi Kavanaugh finished fifth in the league meet. Although Michelle Larose, a lead runner, was injured, the team had a record of 7-4. "The only thing we would change about our season is the boys . . . they won't sing along with us." The team consists of mainly seniors (Lisa Casey, Sheila Chenard, Kristi Kavanaugh, and Michelle Larose), rebuilding of the team must occur in the near future.

RADICAL RUNNERS

First row: S. Sullivan, J. Shaw, B. Smith; second row: D. Goyette, D. McEnaney, M. Menard, A. Greenough.

Mr. McGrath characterizes his Boys Cross Country Team as "Hardworking, inexperienced, and having good attitudes." The one senior, Al Greenough, exemplified these qualities as he lead the team finishing fourth in the league. A larger turnout is Mr. McGrath's one hope for next year. An increase is needed in order to ensure the future of Boys Cross Country.

WITHOUT A DOUBT . . .

first row: J. Johnson, M. O'Connor. P. Dugan, A. Allworth, S. Barakian, J. Holmes, T. Keegan, K. Smith. second row: N. Bennoit, C. Casey, R. Haddad, Coach Schofield, K. Faucher, A. Cure, P. Saro, B. Johnson

Amy A gives the evil eye.

"Don't worry WB has lost before . . ."

Coach Schofield monkees around.

Coach Schofield uses the adjectives "stressful, competitive, and enthusiastic" to describe her field hockey team. Although the members of the team did not have a winning season, they strived to achieve by trying their best. Senior half-back, Carla Bruhn, and senior Patty Dugan, were the captains who proved their worth with effective defense. Seniors Amy Allworth, Susan Barakian, Jen Holmes, Joey Johnson, and Molly O'Connor also played with skill. The future for field hockey in W.B. looks uncertain unless . . . the underclassmen begin to try out for this fulfilling and exciting sport; designed to relieve stress.

As summer vacation came to an end, it was time for the 1986 football season to begin. This year the Lions put their best foot forward and formed a team with a quick offense and a rugged defense.

The season was quite an accomplishment for all the players. Their hard work paid off with a winning season of 7-3. "Quick, young, and good" were the words Coach Priestly used to describe his team. His wish to have "won three more games" will give the team all the more determination to do so in the years to come.

The team excelled this year with the determination of all the players under the leadership of Coach Priestly, captains John Gleason and Beeza Watkins and other "excellent" seniors Phil Chila, Jeff Daignault, John Darrah, Pete Flanagan, Chris Greer, Scott Grenier, and Tim Roberts led the team to victory. Without a doubt, is was a super season!!!

TIMELY TOUCHDOWNS

Go bananas! B-A-N-A-N-A-S!!

The dreaded cheer — go lions go!

LOUD LEADERS

The energetic and spirited cheerleaders faithfully followed the lions throughout their entire season. During snow, biting winds, and pouring rain, the cheerleaders remained to encourage the team. The senior members, along with Coach Mrs. Ekblom, worked on new mounts, cheers, and routines. These senior members were Amy Alicandro, Maureen Bennett, Sherri Green, Marianne Mullen, and Margie Webb.

WITHOUT A DOUBT . . .

first row: J. Alicandro, L. Hovsepian, E. Olson, D. Leslie, T. Parker, K. Materas, Leon Hovsepian, A. Joshi, D. Hubbard; second row: G. Kokalis, S. Atchue, C. Letendre, Justin Alicandro, Coach Brooks, K. Buck, J. Brunetta, P. Bryngleson, C. Hunt.

Amit prepares to make a goal.

Todd practices kick-offs.

Eric struts across the field.

Although soccer is not a big sport at WBHS, the teams participation has increased greatly in the past years. The soccer season had its share of challenges, as well as easy wins, to create a 5-10-1 record. It appears that the team had a losing season; however, the team managed to achieve a shut-out win against the rivals of Baypath. The seniors who displayed their athletic skills were Chris Klein, Amit Joshi, Dave Leslie, Eric Olson, and goalie, Todd Parker.

KICKING KLEATS

first row: M. Aubrey, S. Atchue, K. Cappabianca, M. Mullins, K. Hubbard, M. Supernor; second row: C. Hannigan, P. Kavanagh, K. Alicandro, C. Morris, K. McMillan, K. Buck, D. Mullen, J. Sullivan, Coach Mullins.

Girl's soccer had a good time. New this year, they entered the season with enthusiasm. As they begin to develop, girls soccer will begin to become competitive.

Is that Kim or the ball being kicked?

WITHOUT A DOUBT

First row: T. Sambito, J. Cappabianca, J. Carelli, B. Watkins, C. Carelli, T. Granger, C. Pehl; second row: B. Young — Mgr., S. Bostek, A. Greenough, D. Coyette, C. Coleman, and Coach Constantino.

First row: K. Coleman, M. Menard, T. Sambito, J. Boucher, J. Cappabianca, D. Goyette, J. Lindberg, K. McKee; second row: B. Young — Mgr., J. McCarthy, J. Martinath, R. Rotti, D. Schofield, R. McKay, C. Granger, M. Welburn, and Coach Bonci.

The boys varsity team had a rough season. Their main hindrance was lack of height. They had several good games with the help of seniors Al Greenough, Scott Bostek, and Beeza Watkins. Al describes the team's season as jamming super. The future will prove to be competitive as West Boylston continues to dribble and defend with enthusiasm.

The boy's junior varsity team boasts the young talents of Tom Sambito, Mike Menard, and Joe Cappabianca. As they play, they learn the basketball ropes. Finishing with a decent record this group promises to be successful in the future.

BOUNTIFUL BASKETS

Chuck goes for the rebound.

Mr. Perry and Bill Young keep score.

The coach gives his secret to their success.

Tom does his best layup.

One, two, three, rebound.

WITHOUT A DOUBT . . .

The girls basketball team had an excellent season, along with beating their rival, Uxbridge. They reached the semifinals but were defeated by Bromfield. Senior Carla Bruhn played an outstanding defense as senior Lisa Casey successfully rebounded throughout the season. The future appears promising because of the many talented underclassmen. Coach Priestly wishes the team had less turnovers, but described his team as quick.

Coach Garafoli "wouldn't change anything" about the junior varsity girls basketball team. This team had an outstanding season with a 16-2 record. They defeated the two teams that they lost to previously in the second round. Tall and talented are the adjectives Coach Garafoli used to descibe his team. The future should be promising but "perhaps not as dominant as in the past."

SUPERIOR SHOTS

Try and block my shot

The lions surround their prey.

Captains, Lisa C. and Carla B., proudly lead WBHS.

"You can't stop me now!"

Coach Garafoli congratulates the team.

first row: L. Jackson, M. Aubrey. second row: T. Belsito, T. Clark, J. Blake. third row: K. McGoldrick

C'mon girls, you can jump higher than that!!!

HOOP HELPERS

The varsity cheerleaders "shall never fall" — who said that?

The spirit of the lion can be best seen in the cheerleaders. Every game, they energetically display vigor and pep in their many routines. The yelling of commands to "shoot for the hoop" can be heard throughout the gym while the performing of the "chain", helps get everyone psyched. Under the coaching of Mrs. Ekblom, the squad has been able to increase spirit.

Those legs aren't just to look at!!

WITHOUT A DOUBT . . .

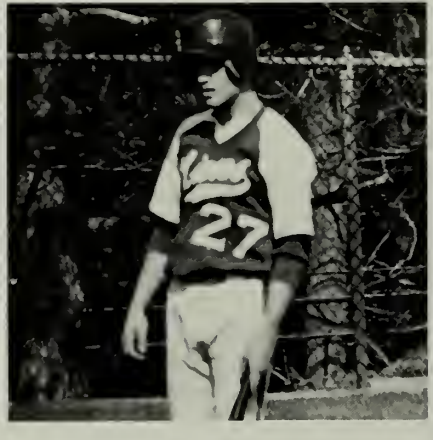
Joe Capp is alone, ponders his game



Chuck takes his walk.

The view before a homerun.

Donald Belsito and Beeza Watkins seniors help the young players learn the game. Since the team consists of mainly underclassmen, the players must become developed over a three year period. As the team grows with experience, Coach Ekblom expects improvement form the young players. The future two years looks competitive and challenging as new talents unfold.

Swing that bat!

BOOMING BATS

first row: C. Winnenberg, M. Gaitane, Coach Bianchini, B. Clark, R. Olds, T.C. Gaudette. second row: S. Sullivan, J. Van Skyhawk, R. Gaitane, D. Cure, R. Monk. third row: C. Allworth, B. Hunt, M. Welburn, C. Granger.

"I know you have to win some and lose some"

"What do you mean we're down by ten runs?"

Perfect poise

The JV Baseball team is young and inexperienced. As they play more they will grow in ability. Showing school spirit, this group continues to play their best. Coach Bianchini feels positive about their progress.

WITHOUT A DOUBT . . .

Mary dares you to hit her with your best shot

The girls varsity softball team is young and talented. Co-captains, Mary Horgan, an excellent catcher, and Sandy Gaudette, an outstanding batter, lead the team with their experience. Coach Garafoli states "more speed is needed on the bases but the future shines bright," for the underclassmen look tough.

Colleen and Kristi were born to run.

Girl's track is energetic but young and inexperienced. The seniors MaryEllen Carlson, Lisa Casey, and Kristi Kavanaugh, along with the underclassmen, compete with enthusiastic spirit. Mr. Keeney says "the first meet was the best that he has ever witnessed!". With a winning start, the season promises to remain competitive. The future of girls track depends on future participation.

FLYING FEET

"No pain, no gain" — right Chris?

Thumb's up!!!!

Glenn grasps for air.

MaryEllen and Meg intensely watch their opponents

Make sure you make WB win!

Chris Greer and John Darrah lead the boys track team with skill and expertise. Mr. Priestly wishes that more male athletes would try out for track and says that the future appears dismal without better participation. Working together, the boys track team hopes to have a successful season.

SPECTACULAR SPIRIT

JUNIOR PROM

It was May 23 at Holden Hills,
"Good Life," our band provided many thrills.
Dancing to "This Could Be The Night,"
We wondered who might,
Be crowned queen,
It was no surprise when Mr.
O'Connor gave the honor to Heidi Jean.

REMEMBER

Each day of Homecoming Week had separate themes. Monday through Friday took after song titles. We showed spirit for all of our teams. There were daily competitions within the grades. Along with the charity donation. The class of 1987 had it made. And yet again experienced the winning sensation. The Homecoming Court was picked with much thought as this decision is very important. Who could be our Queen? Senior Michelle Larose WON the lot.

Michelle Larose was just crowned homecoming queen.

Amy, Chris, and Maureen check out the prospects for the dance.

Maybe field hockey is your sport, Eric.

THE FEELING?

Donald surely has the lion spirit.

Dave and Tracy enjoy the dance.

Kevin and Beeza, can't you argue later?

Patty, Amy, and Michelle sure know how to boogie!

Kristi gives Michelle a congratulation hug.

"The Sting"

Hooker played by Todd Parker and Gondorff played by Chris Klein.
The play was fun and it turned out fine.
We played the con and made the sting
Mr. White and the cast of 50 gave it their everything.

How to Succeed in Business

JP Finch (Dave Leslie) attempted to climb the ladder of success by using a guide,
He managed to succeed, even though he never tried.
He found Rosemary (Tracy Bahn), but didn't give her a second look,
Because he was told to do so in his trusty little book.
Although disaster struck and he didn't know what to do,
He managed to succeed in business and win his girl too!

Without Even Trying

WHAT A BALL!!!!

It was quite a sight,
To see the seniors dancing to
"Wonderful Tonight."
It was held at Stephanie's with
"Dazzle" — quite a blast.
The seniors were bouncing off the walls because it was their last.
On April 3rd they boogied away,
And hoped it would never end —
because they wanted to stay.

QUEBEC EST UN

QUEBEC
The French classes four and five,
went to Quebec for four days.
They met some French people and tried to understand their ways.
Visiting many museums and stores,
They ate until they could eat no more.
They bought paintings from an artist
on the street,
And had a buggy ride from horses
with tired feet.
Attending a school, to explore the life of a student.
They discovered that the need for
French was evident.
At the end of the trip, they hoped to return,
Saying goodbye to guide Jean Pierre, remembering all they had learned.

A spectacular view of Chateau Frontenac

Our crazy chaperones

We remember . . .

VILLE D'AMOUR

The first dinner at the Vendome

"Whenever I see your smiling face . . ."

Impatient girls wait for the restaurant to open

This sure beats the cafeteria lunches!

A real life haunted house !!!!

THAT WAS THEN . . .

For the second year in a row, the class of 1987 won the annual Play Competitions with the play "The Scheme of the Driftless Shifter." The play was about producing a play and its common mistakes. There were many planned mistakes to also add to the realistic production. As we the class of 1987 look back to Robin Hood, the schoolhouse, and the president's golf club, we still find the memories of the fun and frustrations over the years.

We even proved it was true.

"How could we have lost? Look at these costumes!"

Mr. Belsito, if you don't behave you will get a pink slip!

. . . THIS IS NOW

"Hi Mom!!!"

It's a bird! It's a plane! Oh, it's only Todd.

"This hat is an original. It was made by Pierre Chapeau himself!"

MaryEllen and Larry argue over the play.

The villian makes his threat!

PAJAMARAMA

The junior class performed a play entitled "The Pajama Party." The successful performance received numerous laughs as the juniors tried their best to steal the show. The all girl cast portrayed a very realistic sleepover.

Put your left foot in, put your left foot out, and do the hokey pokey.

"How could the seniors be better?"

The bear stole the show.

COLLEGE LIFE-ALREADY?

So that is how Alicia aged to fast!!

After many long hours of practice, the sophomore class professionally performed "A Storm in the Dorm." The story was based on a typical college dorm. The class did a fantastic job and should be commended.

"Carol, how can you ask me to marry you? I just met you a minute ago!!"

Kim, cheer up! Your slippers are real cute!

REJECTION BY DAD

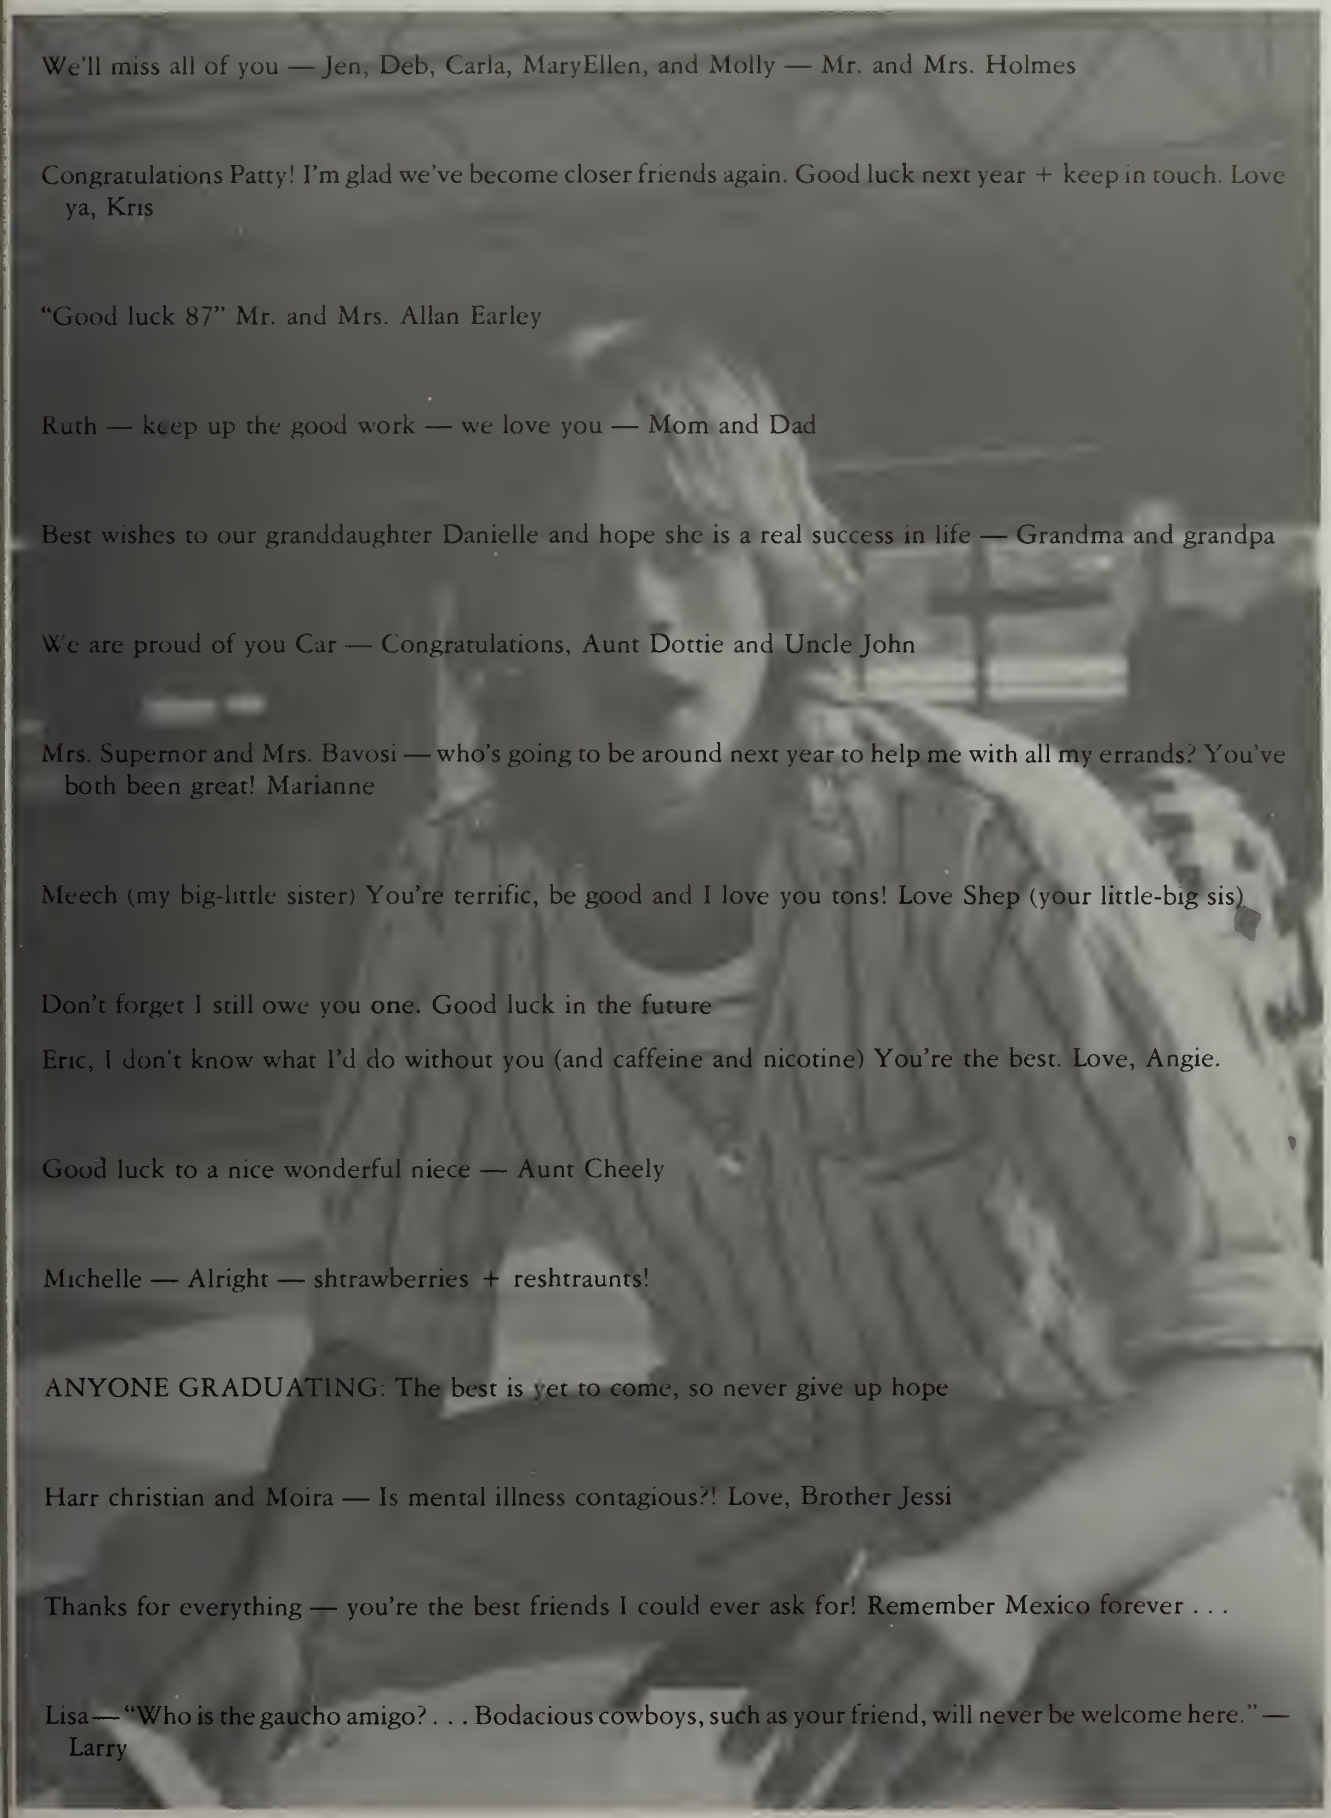
The first play competition is always the hardest, but the freshmen showed their resistance to stage pressure in their "Father Says No." With such a great start, the freshmen will be a fierce competition in the years to come.

"Are you sure no one took a bite of this piece of candy?"

Coach potatoes on the rise!

Pres. Pat does his monologue.

Can you believe Amy is biting her nails?!?



We'll miss all of you — Jen, Deb, Carla, MaryEllen, and Molly — Mr. and Mrs. Holmes

Congratulations Patty! I'm glad we've become closer friends again. Good luck next year + keep in touch. Love ya, Kris

"Good luck 87" Mr. and Mrs. Allan Earley

Ruth — keep up the good work — we love you — Mom and Dad

Best wishes to our granddaughter Danielle and hope she is a real success in life — Grandma and grandpa

We are proud of you Car — Congratulations, Aunt Dottie and Uncle John

Mrs. Supernor and Mrs. Bavosi — who's going to be around next year to help me with all my errands? You've both been great! Marianne Meech (my big-little sister) You're terrific, be good and I love you tons! Love Shep (your little-big sis)

Don't forget I still owe you one. Good luck in the future

Eric, I don't know what I'd do without you (and caffeine and nicotine) You're the best. Love, Angie.

Good luck to a nice wonderful niece — Aunt Cheely

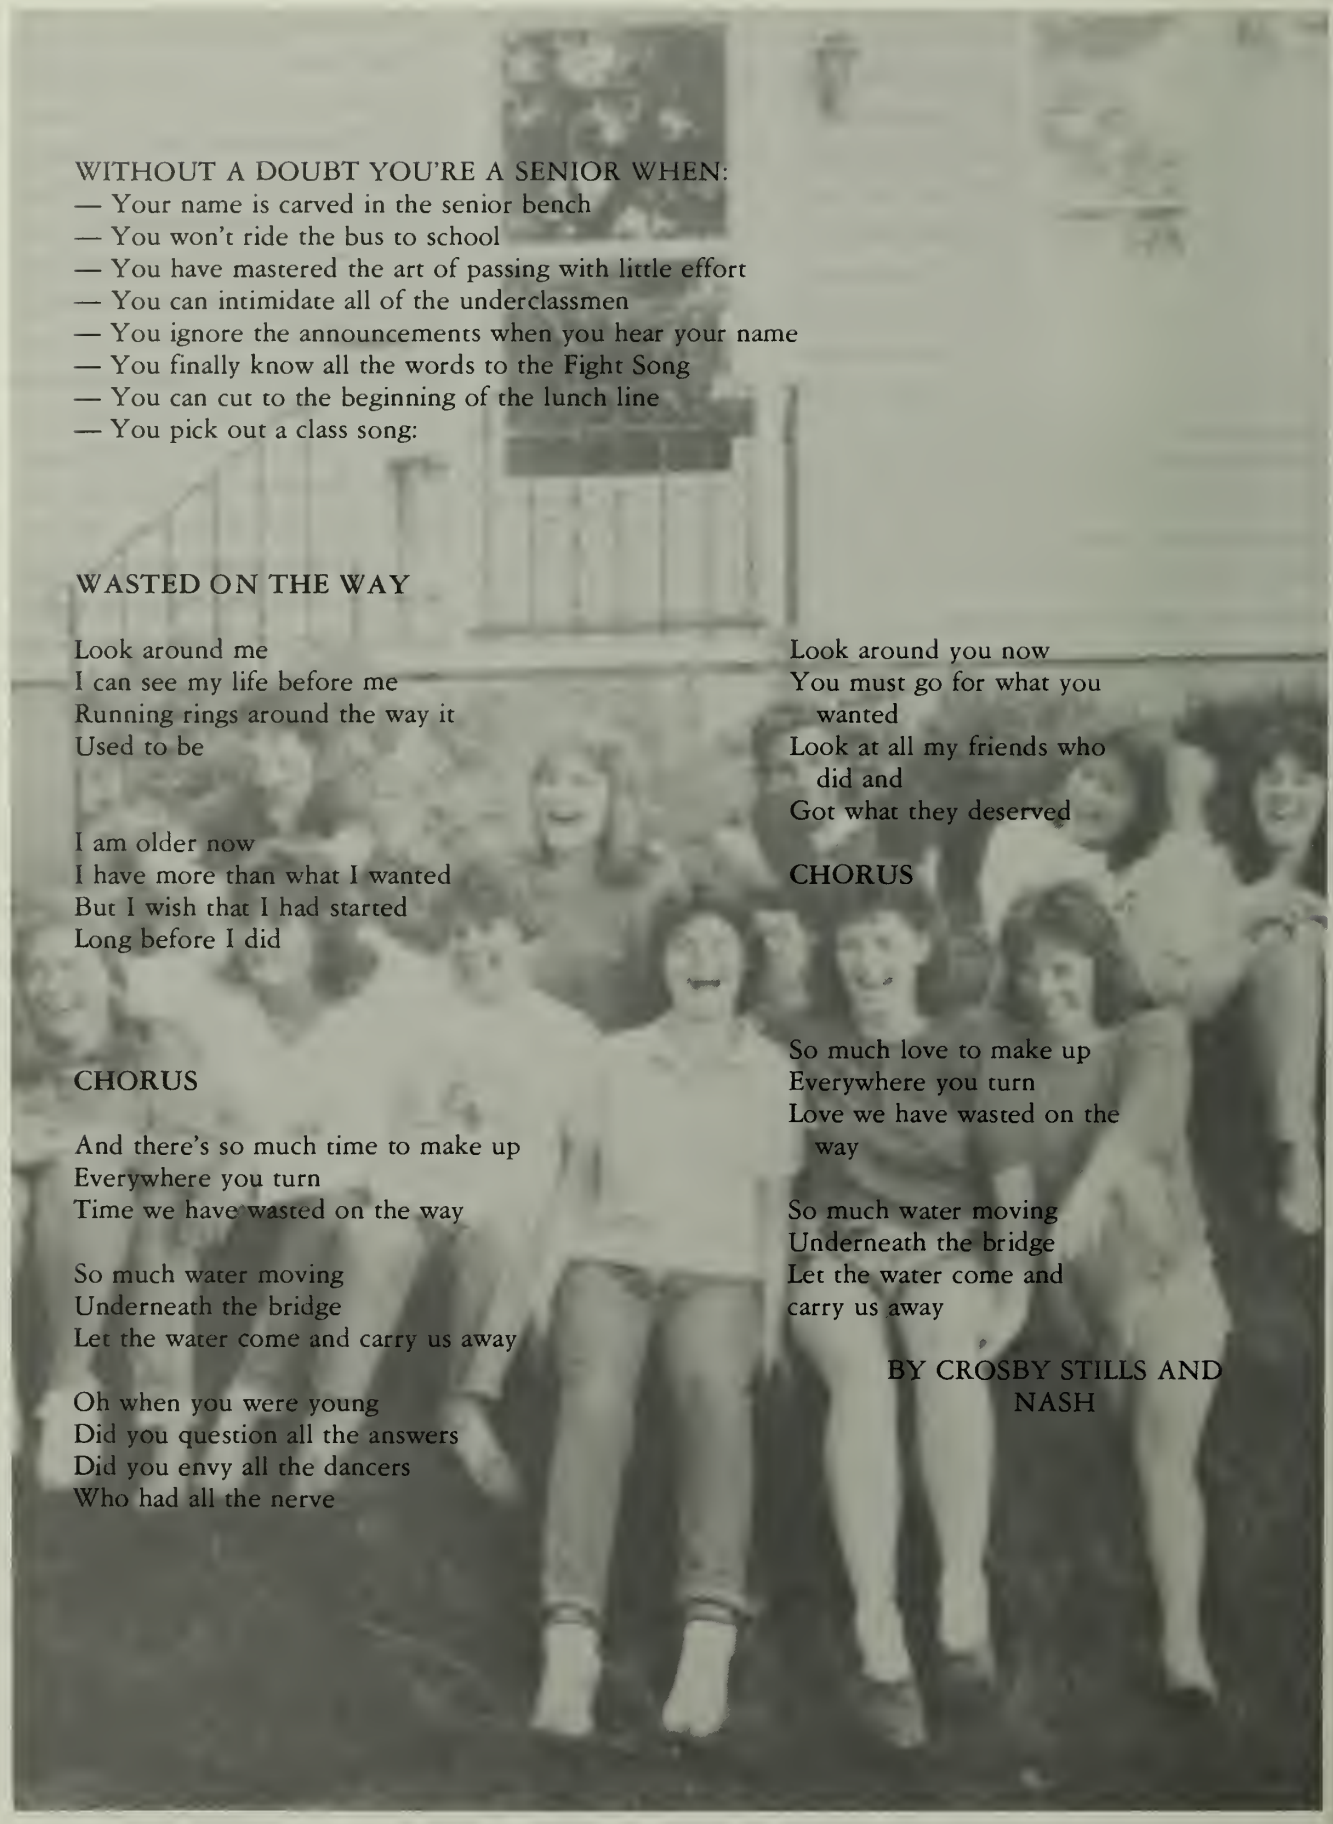
Michelle — Alright — shtrawberries + reshtraunts!

ANYONE GRADUATING: The best is yet to come, so never give up hope

Harr christian and Moira — Is mental illness contagious?! Love, Brother Jessi

Thanks for everything — you're the best friends I could ever ask for! Remember Mexico forever . . .

Lisa — "Who is the gaucho amigo? . . . Bodacious cowboys, such as your friend, will never be welcome here." — Larry



WITHOUT A DOUBT YOU'RE A SENIOR WHEN:
— Your name is carved in the senior bench
— You won't ride the bus to school
— You have mastered the art of passing with little effort
— You can intimidate all of the underclassmen
— You ignore the announcements when you hear your name
— You finally know all the words to the Fight Song
— You can cut to the beginning of the lunch line
— You pick out a class song:

WASTED ON THE WAY

Look around me
I can see my life before me
Running rings around the way it Used to be

I am older now
I have more than what I wanted
But I wish that I had started
Long before I did

CHORUS

And there's so much time to make up
Everywhere you turn
Time we have wasted on the way

So much water moving
Underneath the bridge
Let the water come and carry us away

Oh when you were young
Did you question all the answers
Did you envy all the dancers
Who had all the nerve

Look around you now
You must go for what you wanted
Look at all my friends who did and
Got what they deserved

CHORUS

So much love to make up
Everywhere you turn
Love we have wasted on the way

So much water moving
Underneath the bridge
Let the water come and carry us away

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The seven senior members of the NHS participated in many rewarding activities involving the dinner for the homeless, Christmas party for the elderly, the phoneathon, the Special Olympics, and tutoring fellow students. This year, Dave Leslie served as treasurer, Marianne Mullen as secretary, Lisa Howard as vice-president, and Jen Holmes as president. With the help of Sharyn Holmlund, the NHS contributed to their community by demonstrating their character, leadership, and service.

Along with the new year, came a new group of determined individuals. On April 14, 1987 the following students were inducted into NHS at the Christmas Inn in Holden: Melissa Esteves, Nicole Benoint, Jodie Blake, Megan Cleary, Leon Hovsepian, Lisa Hovsepian, Vasiliki Kokalis, Pam Saro, Carol Webb, and Kevin Coleman.

YEARBOOK STAFF

The clueless yet hardworking crew!

Dear Readers,

The Yearbook Staff would like to convey our sincere apologies to anyone who may have misinterpreted our intentions. This year has been very experimental due to the fact that the year book committee was comprised of all novices, including our advisor Kevin O'Neil. Consequently we did our best under very trying circumstances. With this in mind, we hope that you the reader appreciate and understand the work and the effort that was placed behind the 1987 "Without a Doubt" edition of the Lion's Roar.

We would like to thank the following individuals for their time and contributions: Patty Dugan, Michelle Larose — sales; Mr. Traver — Mr. Simpson — computer dating; Greg Pappanastos, Maryellen Carlson — artwork; students who gave photos . . . especially Glen Pogharian; Larry Christianson, Helen Almstrom, Lisa Milinazzo and Eric Blaisdell ads; Matt Bucella and Mike Vignaly — our Hawaiian DJs; Mrs. Supernor and Mrs. Bavosi — our gophers; The custodial staff — for unlocking the doors; Mrs. Allworth — photography and extreme patience, Win Handy — photography; Angie Bailey and Debbie O'Brien — helping with our last minute deadlines. Lastly but not leastly, we would like to thank Kevin for his help as our advisor.

Sincerely,
Jen, Marianne, and Amy

It's the first day of school and hearts are beating wildly. Are the rumors true? Will the upperclassmen harass me in the bathroom? The answer is "no." Seventh graders begin to build niches and create their own sense of belonging. Smiling at their first success they feel like seniors already.

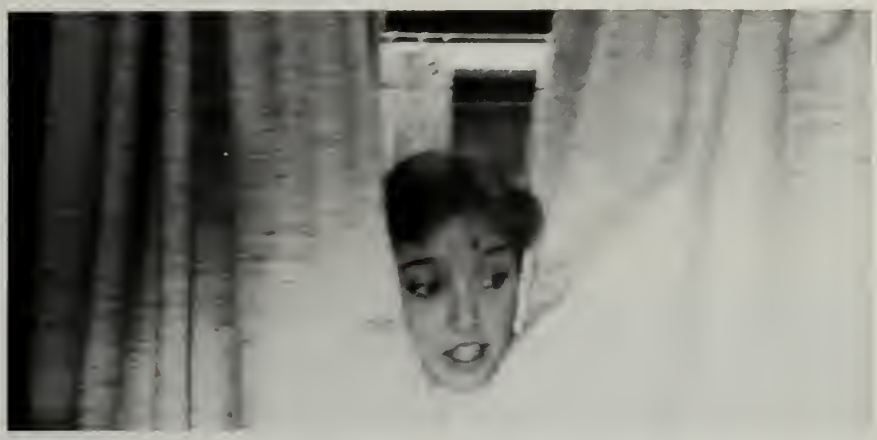
THE LAST . . .

The Class of 1987 all have memories of West Boylston High School and we all know the feeling of experiencing the last . . .
demerits (or merits) . . . F-day cycle . . . final exam . . . afternoon announcements . . . drive into the student parking lot . . . pep rally . . . chance to skip class . . . school business days . . . play comps . . . yearbook committee meeting . . . trip to your locker . . . sit on the Senior bench . . . meal in the cafeteria . . . class meeting with Mr. O'Connor and Mr. White . . . busride . . . chance to fall asleep in class . . . breakfast club meeting at Denny's . . . library notice threatening a detention . . . college application and transcript forms . . . chance to sing the Lion's Fight Song . . . unexcused absence . . . gym class and volleyball game . . . time to say "it's ok!" . . . sprint to class in fear of being late . . . homework assignment . . . chance to try out for a musical (or the Senior Play) . . . time to give the office your ID number . . . and at last . . . GRADUATION!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

WITHOUT A DOUBT, the class of 1987 . . .

— knows that when you're cordially invited to Mr. O'Connor's office, it's not for tea.
— have played the con
— know how to pop the balloons
— know how to take advantage of every situation
— isn't "lion" when they say they know how to roar
— has left their mark (on the school, on the walls, on the bench, on the parking lot, on the desks etc. . . .)

As the sun sets on our high school years,



it will rise to inspire
our future . . .

without a doubt.
